BROOKLYN WINS IT.

The Bridegrooms Are the Champions of the American Association for 1899.

The Browns' Defeat at Cincinnati This Afternoon Causes This Result.

It Is Not Possible Now to Overtake the Brooklynites.

President Von der Ahe Has Decided Not to Go to Philadelphia.

Full Details of the Two Games at Cincinnati This Afternoon, the First of Which Made Brooklyn the Champions of the Association—President Stern's Congratulations Telegram to President Byrne—Description of All the Base Ball Games Played This Afternoon.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 15.—Two thousand people saw the two games between St. Louis and Cincinnati this afternoon. Both sides were in for blood. The first contest began at 1:30 o'clock with Duryea and Keenan as the battery for Cincinnati and Stivett and Milligan for the visitors. Hits by McPhee, Kelly and Carpenter's double gave Porkopolis three runs in the first.

The Browns took one on singles by McCarthy and Comsky. Bad errors by Stivett and Milligan gave Cincinnati two more in the second, while the Browns were retired in one-two-three order.

A three-bagger by Stivett and Keenan's wild throw added one to St. Louis' score in the third.

The ex-champions seemed to go to pieces in the fourth, and bad errors by Milligan and Boyle, with Holliday's single, gave the Reds a run. Carpenter's fine double play blanketed the Browns.

Ollie Reed was caught at the plate on a home-run hit in the fifth, and the side failed to score, and the Browns met the same fate.

The Reds put another nail in St. Louis' coffin by an earned run in the sixth on McPhee's double and steal, and Holliday's sacrifice.

Comsky got as far as third on Tebeau's snuff of his long fly, but he failed to reach home. By Carpenter's fumble and single of Boyle, and Duffee's double, St. Louis sent Milligan across the plate in the seventh.

The eighth inning was without any notable feature. Neither side scored, although St. Louis had men on bases, but could not get them in. By the grace of Robinson, Kelly reached first. Carpenter's fine double gave back to 1898, concluding the game.

St. Louis went to the bat for the last time. The jig was up and they played as they thought so. Boyle struck out and Duffee followed suit. Fuller ended the agony with a fly to Tebeau and all chances of St. Louis were gone.

The following is the score by innings:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total

St. Louis, 11; Cincinnati, 1.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 15.—When the second game began the crowd had increased to nearly 4,000. President Von der Ahe, who had arranged to take his team to Philadelphia in case he won both games here, decided not to go. He was very much broken up over his defeat.

President Stern telegraphed President Byrne of the Brooklyn: "Accept hearty congratulations; St. Louis will remain here."

The second game began at 3:45. Chamberlain and Milligan occupying the points for St. Louis and Ryan and Earle for Cincinnati.

The following is the score by innings:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total

Kansas City, 11; Indianapolis, 7.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—Kansas City's base ball team stopped over in Indianapolis to-day on its way home from Louisville, and according to a previous arrangement played an exhibition game witnessed by a good crowd.

The following is the score by innings:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total

Cleveland, 8; Columbus, 7.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 15.—A game of ball was played to-day by the home nine and the Association club from Columbus. It was an exhibition game and was a remunerative venture. The attendance was large. The game was close and exciting to the finish, though the play was not at all times as clean as the enthusiasts desired.

The following is the score by innings:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total

New York, 15; Metropolitan, 8.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Giants and the Metropolitans played a seven-inning game—a slugging match—this afternoon. There was nothing remarkable about the game except the slugging of the Giants in the sixth inning. The crowd was fair and chilled. The game was called at the end of the seventh on account of darkness.

The following is the score by innings:

Athletics, 9; Baltimore, 3.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—The Athletics and Baltimore played ball to-day and the Orioles were beaten. Foreman was batted heavily by the Athletics and so the game was won by the home team. At the end of the seventh inning the game was called on account of darkness.

The following is the score by innings:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Total
Athletics	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Baltimore	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Base hits—Athletics, 12; Baltimore, 10. Errors—Athletics, 1; Baltimore, 3. Batteries—Athletics, Weyhing and Oros; Baltimore, Foreman and Quinn. Umpire—Kriegle.

The Championship.

Brooklyn, after one of the hardest and one of the most unfair struggles ever made, has won the championship of the American Association. The defeat of the Browns at Cincinnati in the first game this afternoon settled it beyond doubt. The Browns won the second game, but this did no good. The season closes on Thursday. The nearest club with which the Browns had sufficient postponed games was the Athletics. The scheme, if the Browns won both games at Cincinnati to-day was to take an early train for Philadelphia to-night. This would land St. Louis in the Quaker City in time to play one game to-morrow. They would have played two on Thursday. If they won the two games in Cincinnati and the three in Philadelphia, they would have played and won one more game than the Brooklynites, would have been even in games lost, and consequently would have been champions. The loss to-day prevents this. To win all the games with the Athletics now would be the Browns with the Brooklynites in game won but lost. St. Louis one more lost game than the Brooklynites.

TANNER ON MANDERSON'S CASE.

Secretary Noble and the Revolving of Gen. Powell's Pension.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The Post this morning publishes an interview with Commissioner Tanner, in which he justifies his action in re-rating Senator Mander's pension.

He says:

"I have seen a copy of Secretary Noble's letter to Senator Mander, but judging from the extracts quoted in Senator Mander's letter, I presume that the rating of this re-rating was illegal because no application had been made, and if that is the reason, all that need be done is to have the rating corrected. I have always considered that he should see that entire justice is done to all pensioners, where injustice is being done to a pensioner, he should right the wrong, and I am of the opinion that Secretary Noble is right in this re-rating."

Speaking further on the subject, the Commissioner said: "I have seen the letter of the Secretary of War, Mr. Taft, in which he has recommended that the pension of Gen. Powell be continued. I have also seen the letter of the Secretary of War, Mr. Taft, in which he has recommended that the pension of Gen. Powell be continued. I have also seen the letter of the Secretary of War, Mr. Taft, in which he has recommended that the pension of Gen. Powell be continued."

It was the closing day of the New York Jockey Club's fall meeting and the only stake event on the programme was the Farwell stakes for 3-year-olds. It did not bring out a particularly strong field. Laurencia got away in the lead followed by Civil Service, who passed her before the quarter was reached and was never afterward headed. CREDITORS WILL TAKE THE ROAD.
It is finally decided to ask for a receiver for the Cable & Western.

A meeting of the creditors of the St. Louis Cable & Western was held in Judge Laughlin's office this afternoon, and it was finally decided to ask for the appointment of a receiver on Thursday. The road runs through two counties, so under a ruling of the Supreme Court it cannot be sold at Sheriff's sale, and a receiver is necessary. The receiver will probably be Mr. Alphonse de Figueiredo, who has proved such an efficient manager. The road will in all probability be bought in by a company composed of creditors and operated by them.

Finally Acquired.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 15.—Last night the case against Ben F. Blocker, charged with the murder of G. W. Woods in March, 1887, came to an end, the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty. The trial has been in progress since Thursday last and excited much attention. Blocker was, in October, 1888, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. His counsel appealed and got the case remanded for a new trial on a technicality. Blocker has been in jail thirty-two months. The evidence against him was wholly circumstantial.

Blind Love. The last novel of the great Wilkie Collins. Another installment in the next SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

The Sacred Season.
In honor of the closing day of the sacred season in the Hebrew calendar, the congregation of Temple Israel (corner of Twenty-eighth and Pine) has arranged a grand evening of song, to be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The musical celebration will be under the direction of Prof. A. G. Kohn, and a solo sermon will be preached by Rabbi Sonnenschein. All are welcome.

The Idlewild Killed.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
CAPE GRADE, Pa., Oct. 15.—The steamer Little Eagle yesterday succeeded in raising the sunken steamer Idlewild, but has not yet pulled her out of the snag that wrecked her. She probably will do so in time to get away for St. Louis to-night.

Wilkie Collins. The last great story of this talented novelist is now running in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

See McNichol About It.
When the summer's winds are blowing,

When the hardy rose is growing
Love can rest then, anywhere
But when autumn's breeze is sighing,
When the leaves begin to roam,
Falling fast and faster—dying—
Then love needs his little home.

Love thrives best in this existence,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry Carefully repaired and warranted. For accurate

Not to see it in the traffic,
Not to read it in a text,
Comfort for the weary hearted,
Blessings we can see and feel;
Plant a home, when once its started,
Love will stamp his sign and seal.

FOR MEN ONLY!

All too late to make it, neighbors?
No, it's not too late to mend.

Nee the dearest, too, my friend,
 Wife and children, how they treasure,
 In the years that after rise
 Dreams and memories of a pause
 That around that heartstone lies.

If you're little or no money,
 Don't despair, but make it tell;

Sorrow, debt, bid wild swell.
See McNeeloh, tell your story.
Choose the little sums you like,
He will help you on to glory.
Now is just the time to strike.
